

Chris D. Cottongim, AIA, LEED AP, Principal in Charge

Professional Certification

Kentucky – Registration #5253
Indiana – Registration #AR10500082
South Carolina – Registration #7529

National Council of Architectural Registration
Board - Registration #54412

United States Green Building Council -
LEED Accredited Professional

Education:

Atelier Veneziano - Venice, Italy – Fall 1992
Directors: Maria Dallerba-Ricci & Leonardo Ricci

University of Kentucky- Lexington, Kentucky
Bachelor of Architecture – 1995

Professional Experience:

Chris Cottongim is the Principal in Charge for all projects at the 5253 Design Group. He is involved in every aspect of developing a project from the initial meetings, to drawing preparation, cost estimating, scheduling, specifications, and contract administration.

Mr. Cottongim has designed, prepared contract documents, and administered contracts for institutional, municipal, educational, office facilities, residential, and commercial projects. Completed projects of these types include facilities of new construction, renovation, and remodeling. His experience includes master planning, site/land planning, programming, space planning, cost estimating, and the preparation of code, technical and feasibility analysis.

Relative Project Experience:

Jefferson County Public Schools
Eisenhower Renovation & Media Center Addition

Madison Consolidated Schools – Madison, IN
MCS Bus Complex Renovation
E.O. Muncie Elementary Canopy Replacement

Elizabethtown High School
Campus Master Plan
Football Stadium & Field House

Lindsey Wilson College
Campus Master Plan 2006
Athletic Complex Master Plan 2007
Baseball Complex & Field House
Softball Complex & Field House
Football Stadium & Field House
Doris & Bob Holloway Wellness Center
& Natatorium
Harold J. Smith Residence Hall
Sumner Christian Ministry Center
Campus Maintenance Headquarters

Eastern Kentucky University
Arlington Club House

Madison County Public Library – Berea Branch
Bowling Green Public Library – Kirby Branch
Mary Wood Weldon Memorial Library
Mercer County Public Library
Trimble County Public Library

Bradley D. Noe, Architect

Professional Certification

Kentucky – Registration #5414

Education:

University of Kentucky- Lexington, Kentucky
Bachelor of Architecture – 1994

Professional Experience:

Brad Noe is a Project Architect at the 5253 Design Group. He is involved in every aspect of developing a project from the initial meetings, to drawing preparation, cost estimating, scheduling, specifications, and contract administration.

Mr. Noe has designed, prepared contract documents, and administered contracts for institutional, medical, municipal, educational, office facilities, residential, and mixed-use projects. Completed projects of these types include facilities of new construction, renovation, and remodeling. His experience includes, programming, space planning, cost estimating, and the preparation of code, technical and feasibility analysis.

Relative Project Experience:

Jefferson County Public Schools
Eisenhower Renovation & Media Center Addition

Madison Consolidated Schools – Madison, IN
Bus Complex Renovation
E.O. Muncie Elementary Canopy Replacement
Anderson Elementary Renovation

Lindsey Wilson College
Baseball Complex & Field House
Softball Complex & Field House

Eastern Kentucky University
Arlington Club House

Bowling Green Public Library
Kirby Branch
Graham Drive Branch

Mary Wood Weldon Memorial Library

Mercer County Public Library

Trimble County Public Library

Wilmington Cancer Center - Norton, VA

Echt Medical Office Building - Decatur, TX

Las Colinas Cancer Center - Irving, TX

Texas Cancer Care - Austin, TX